"Inspiration from a teacher can last a lifetime and make that lifetime worth while."

--Arlene Kaiser Ed.D.

What People Are Saying . . .

“Arlene is the master of practical examples. She illustrates how teachers and students can empower each other to achieve success.” Jack Canfield, Inspirational Speaker and co-author *Chicken Soup for the Soul

“I have received overwhelmingly positive feedback from the participants . . . Arlene you did more than communicate relevant information: you touched the hearts and lives of the participants.” Laura K. Field, Health Promotion Specialist, Chevron Corporation

“It is my privilege and pleasure to recommend Dr. Kaiser as a keynote speaker for both secular and non-secular audiences. She has the unique ability to frame her presentation to “fit” the objectives of the sponsoring organization, and offers relevant and timely material.

Carl R. Johnson, President, Kitsap Outreach, Inc.

“If you’re looking for a speaker to help your staff put the heart back in education, motivate people to be advocates for kids or inspire staff to demonstrate daily that they care for their students, Arlene is your speaker.” Sharon Belshaw-Jones, former Superintendent, Fremont Unified School District
